THE TIMES OF INDIA

BOMBAY, THURSDAY, JULY 30, 1992

LETTERS

Ayodhya Remedy

Sir, — The solution to the problem of Ram Janambhoomi-Babri Masjid lies in the central government immediately taking over the disputed site by an ordinance or an act of Parliament and handing over the said land to a secular Sarva Dharma Samabhav Prathistan on which scrupulously no politician (of any political hue) will be included as a trustee.

The said foundation will raise funds from government and non-government sources, and to begin with renovate the Babri Masjid, then build a Ram Mandir, followed by various houses of worship with an university of religious studies and a museum of rare religious articles, manuscripts, etc.

If this is done (in the next five years) then truly we can call ourselves a great secular democracy and Ram raj will descend once again in our much-maligned country. We are ready to dedicate ourselves to this cause.

DR LEO REBELLO

Note : This letter was acknowledged by the President, Vice-President and Prime Minister of India and also by prominent persons like Dr. Mulk Raj Anand, Ms. Shabana Azmi, Mr. Homi Taleyarkhan, Gen. S L Rodrigues, Ms. Vimala Thakar as a very sensible approach. If only the suggestions contained herein were implemented we need not have suffered in vain in the aftermath of riots.
