

Participation of Prof. (Dr.) Sohan Raj Tater in First Asian Philosophy Congress, New Delhi

Jodhpur 10 March, 2010, Prof. (Dr.) Sohan Raj Tater chaired session of “JAINISM” (Conducted for 2 Hrs.) in First Asian Philosophy Congress held at Jawaharlal Nehru University, New Delhi organized by I.C.P.R. (Under HRD Ministry, Govt. of India). In this session of Jainism 16 Scholars from whole of India presented their Research papers including nuns of Jain Vishva Bharati University, Ladnun (Raj.). Scholars who were present there around Asia appreciated and shown keen interest in this session.

In the same Congress Prof. (Dr.) Sohan Raj Tater presented his research paper on subject “Concept of Prama in Jainism” as chief speaker in Round Table Conference organized by Akhil Bhartiya Darshan Parishad (Established since year 1954). In this session three more scholars also presented their Research paper on subject “Concept of Prama in Indian Philosophies”. The scholars around Asia who were present in the session showed great interest and curiosity in the topic.